

GOOD DAY

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Product Compliance & Lab Test Results

To Whom It May Concern,

We would like to take a moment to address our valued customers regarding recent concerns about certain products in the market that may contain kratom or other restricted substances.

At Good Day, we are committed to transparency, quality, and full compliance with all applicable regulations. We would like to clearly confirm that Good Day products do not contain kratom or any prohibited substances.

Our products have undergone independent laboratory testing to ensure they meet all safety and compliance standards. For your assurance and transparency, we have attached the official lab test results confirming that our products are free from any restricted materials.

Your trust is extremely important to us, and we remain dedicated to providing safe, compliant, and high-quality products.

Please review the attached lab reports for full details.

Thank you for your continued trust and support.
